

INDENRIGS- OG SUNDHEDSMINISTERIET

29 February 2024

GUIDE FOR VOTERS ON ADVANCE VOTING in the Faroe Islands, Greenland, foreign countries, on Danish ships in foreign trade and on Danish offshore installations for the European Parliament elections in Denmark on Sunday, 9 June 2024

For the European Parliament elections in Denmark on Sunday, 9 June 2024, you can vote in advance in the following locations if you are in a foreign country, in the Faroe Islands or in Greenland:

- At Danish embassies and consulates.
- With the appointed vote receivers in the Faroe Islands, Greenland and in foreign countries.
- At the registration offices in the Faroe Islands and Greenland if you have permanent residence in Denmark but are temporarily staying in the Faroe Islands or Greenland.
- On Danish ships in foreign trade and on Danish offshore installations both inside and outside Danish territory.

You can vote in advance from Sunday, 9 March 2024 in a foreign country, in the Faroe Islands and Greenland.

On Danish offshore installations in Danish territory, you can vote in advance from Sunday, 19 May 2024.

You can vote for a party or candidate standing for election.

As of 29 February 2024, the following parties are eligible to stand for election in Denmark:

A. Socialdemokratiet	O. Dansk Folkeparti
B. Radikale Venstre	V. Venstre, Danmarks Liberale Parti
C. Det Konservative Folkeparti	Æ. Danmarksdemokraterne – Inger Støjberg
F. SF – Socialistisk Folkepart	Ø. Enhedslisten – De Rød-Grønne
I. Liberal Alliance	Å. Alternativet
M. Moderaterne

From Friday, 26 April 2024 at the latest, you can find an overview of the parties and candidates standing for election on the Ministry of the Interior and Health of Denmark's website: valg.im.dk.

The small blue envelopes for the ballot paper contain instructions on how to vote in advance.

You can cast a new vote in advance if you want to change your vote later. It is the last advance vote cast that counts. If you vote in advance, you cannot turn up on election day to vote.

Your advance vote will be sent to your municipality.